SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Queen's University

Smith School of Business at Queen's University is one of the world's exceptional business schools – renowned for its excellence, innovation and leadership in business education and research.

From establishing the first undergraduate business degree a century ago to creating ground-breaking programs and courses in emerging areas including artificial intelligence, fintech, analytics, digital products, team dynamics, social impact, sustainability, and more, Smith is at the forefront of preparing you for tomorrow's business demands.

Smith School of Business delivers an outstanding learning experience – rigorous academics, accomplished faculty in the classroom, research-based curricula, small class sizes, personal attention, support, and coaching, extensive work-integrated learning options, opportunities for specialization, and a deep commitment to student success.

Our programs are highly ranked in Canada by the Financial Times, including named best career services for six years running.

Smith is part of Queen's University, one of Canada's oldest degree-granting institutions founded in 1841, a globally recognized teaching and research university.
