

Northumberland County is leading a Regional Project to build local food capacity in our communities and identify opportunities for people working with local food to grow their businesses, create new partnerships and find new markets.

Regional
Local Food
 Business Retention + Expansion

