

MERVIN A.C. DAUB

Professor Emeritus
School of Business
Queen's University
Kingston, Ontario
(613) 544-2584

Born 11 September 1943
Canadian and French Citizen
Languages: English and French

EDUCATION

1966 B.Comm (Honours), School of Business,
Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario
1967 MBA, Graduate School of Business,
University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois
1971 PhD, Graduate School of Business,
University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois

HONOURS AND AWARDS

Various awards including Beta Gamma Sigma (1969), Canada Council and SSHRC awards, Who's Who in Canada, and the Padre Laverty Award (2008) for Service to Queen's.

PUBLICATIONS

Three books and some sixty articles, chapters in books, working papers, refereed conference papers, as well as regulatory reports, on various subjects including economic forecasting (with particular emphasis on the accuracy of short-term aggregate forecasts), business and sport history, and energy matters (particularly natural gas and electricity).

CONFERENCES, SEMINARS AND LECTURESHIPS

Various presentations at academic conferences and seminars domestically (Montreal, Edmonton, London, Toronto, Vancouver, St. John's, etc.) and internationally (Manchester, Paris, Bonn, Munich, Vienna, Philadelphia, London, Athens, Dublin, etc.); as well as guest lectureships at various universities (Helsinki School of Economics and Business Administration, University of Kaiserslautern (Germany), Prince of Songkla University (Thailand), University of Paris, and University of Rennes (France), Monash University (Australia), etc.).

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Member at one time or another of: Canadian Economics Association American Economics Association, Canadian Association of Administrative Sciences, Canadian Association of Business Economists, International Institute of Forecasters.

Referee and Book Reviewer: Canadian Book Review Annual, Canadian Journal of Economics, Canadian Public Policy, McGill-Queen's Press (Editorial Board), Journal of Macroeconomics, Management Science, Queen's Quarterly, Review of Economics and Statistics, Journal of Econometrics, Journal of Forecasting, International Journal of Forecasting, Canadian Journal of Administrative Sciences, Social Science and Humanities Research Council (Canada), National Science Foundation (U.S.).

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Assistant, Associate and Full Professor, Queen's School of Business (1970-2002). Taught courses in micro and macro economics, forecasting, Canadian commercial history, public policy, international business, business policy and marketing to students in all the School's programs (undergraduate, MBA and MBAST, EMBA, PhD) as well as in the Economics Department (undergraduate, on occasion). Member, Ontario Energy Board (1987-1990), Senior Analyst—Policy, MSED (Government of Canada—1981/2).

ADMINISTRATIVE ACTIVITIES AT QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY

At various times member, or chair, of virtually every committee in the Queen's School of Business and several elsewhere in the university, including by way of illustration the following:

Member/Chair of the International Business Committee; Chair of the International Exchange Committee; Chair of Full Professors Promotion Committee; Promotion, Tenure and Renewal Committee; Research Committee; PhD Committee; Special PTR Review Committee; Graduate Council; Steering Committees of Graduate Council and the Advisory Research Council; Chair of the Building Committee; Capital Campaign Co-ordinator for the School; Chair of the Faculty Board; PhD/MA thesis examiner for the Departments of Economics, Law, Political Studies, History (various); thesis examination Chair for the Graduate School (various); Faculty Representative on the Pension Board; Senator-School of Business; Member of Senate Budget Review and Grievance Committees; Tenure Appeal Committee (Laval); Residence Board; Queen's University Faculty Association (Remunerations Co-ordinator, Vice President, Member of Executive, Salary, Pension and Fringe Benefits and Joint Faculty/Administration Consultative Committees); Faculty Representative to the Board of Trustees.

OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES

Various activities over the years would include talks to local service clubs (Rotary, Lions, etc.), chairing and organizing of the Business Forecast Luncheon (for the local business community, annually, for twelve years), the publishing of several columns in the Kingston Whig Standard (on various subjects) and two books of short stories/poems, being twice elected to the University Council by alumni, and service on several boards including the Kingston General Hospital, Queen's Board of Trustees, The Community Foundation of Greater Kingston and CAA (South Central Ontario).